☨ ☨ ☨

THE ORDINAL

of the

INSULAR CHURCH

The Forme and Manner of Ordering Priests, Consecrating Bishops,
Installing Archbishops, Enthroning Primates,
and, upon the Reunion of the Whole Church,
the Enthronement of the Bishop of Rome

According to the Order of the Insular Church
Pre-Tridentine Insular Rite ☨ Saints Recognised Before A.D. 1550

Drawing upon the Ordinal of the Book of Common Prayer (1662), the Pontificale Romanum, the Gallican Ordination Rites, the Canons of the First Insular Synod in the City of Armagh, and the Customs of the Insular Fathers

Set forth by Authority of the Five Primates
as defined by Canon III of the Synod of Armagh

Corpo MacAirthir, Comharba Pátraic, Primate of Ireland
Claudius Menevensis, Primate of the Welsh
Ellis Cantuariensis, Primate of the Anglo-Saxons
Acutis Eboracensis, Primate of the Danes
Nathan S. Andreae, Primate of Scotland

The Insular Church ☨ Mvindicraft ☨ Anno Dantavius

PREFACE

Concerning the Orders of Ministry

IT is evident unto all men, diligently reading holy Scripture, that from the Apostles' time there have been these Orders of Ministers in Christ's Church: Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. No man shall be accounted a lawful Bishop, Priest, or Deacon in the Insular Church except he be called, tried, examined, and admitted according to the Forms hereafter following, or hath had formerly Episcopal Consecration or Ordination at the hands of Bishops standing in the Apostolic Succession.

In accordance with Canon XII of the Synod of Armagh, for an ordination to be valid it must have proper matter and proper formula, must be performed by an ordained Bishop of good standing, and with the proper intent of both parties. Any person desiring ordination must affirm the Insular Creed and the Revised Confession of Faith as contained in the Bishops' Book (Canon XI).

The governance of this Church resteth upon the College of Five Primates as defined by Canon III of the Synod of Armagh: the See of Armagh, Primate of Ireland and first among equals; the See of St Davids, Primate of the Welsh; the See of Canterbury, Primate of the Anglo-Saxons; the See of York, Primate of the Danes; and the See of St Andrews, Primate of Scotland. Between the order of Bishop and that of Primate standeth the rank of Archbishop, who governeth a Province under the authority of the Primate. In accordance with Canon V, temporal princes retain the right of presenting candidates for vacant Sees, though final determination resteth with the Primate of the Province.

This Ordinal standeth in the Pre-Tridentine Catholic tradition, holding with the Concordat of Candida Casa (c. 849) that the ancient faith of the undivided Church is sufficient for communion. Concerning the hypothetical reunion of the Whole Church, a Form is provided for the Enthronement of the Bishop of Rome as Patriarch of the West and Servant of the Servants of God—acknowledging a primacy of honour, not of dominion.

☥ ☥ ☥

PART I

The Ordering of Priests

☨ ☨ ☨

After Morning Prayer and a Sermon declaring the duty of Priests, the Bishop shall sit in his chair near the holy Table, vested in alb, stole, chasuble, and mitre.

The Presentation

Arch-Deacon. Reverend Father in God, I present unto you these persons present, to be admitted to the Order of Priesthood.

Bishop. Take heed that the persons whom ye present unto us be apt and meet, for their learning and godly conversation, to exercise their ministrie duly.

Arch-Deacon. I have enquired of them, and also examined them, and think them so to be.

Then the Bishop shall say unto the people, inviting any who knoweth an impediment or crime in these persons to come forth. If any great crime be objected, the Bishop shall surcease from ordering that person until the accusation be resolved.

The Litany

The Bishop shall lead the Litany, adding this proper suffrage:

Bishop. That it may please thee to bless these thy servants, now to be admitted to the Order of Priests, and to pour thy grace upon them, that they may duly execute their office to the edifying of thy Church.

People. We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

The Collect

Bishop. Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy holy Spirit hast appointed divers orders of Ministers in thy Church: mercifully behold these thy servants now called to the office of Priesthood, and replenish them so with the truth of thy doctrine, and adorn them with innocency of life, that both by word and good example they may faithfully serve thee in this office; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Lessons

Epistle: Ephesians 4:7–13
Gospel: St John 10:1–16 or St Matthew 9:36–38

The Examination

After the Gospel and Sermon, the Bishop shall examine every one of them in the presence of the people:

Bishop. Do you think in your heart that you be truly called, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ and the order of this Church, to the ministrie of Priesthood?

Answer. I think it.

Bishop. Are you persuaded that the holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all doctrine required of necessity for eternal salvation through faith in Jesus Christ? And are you determined out of the said Scriptures to instruct the people committed to your charge?

Answer. I am so persuaded, and have so determined, by God's grace.

Bishop. Will you give your faithful diligence always so to minister the doctrine and Sacraments, and the discipline of Christ, as the Lord hath commanded and as this Church hath received the same?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of the Lord.

Bishop. Will you be ready to banish and drive away all erroneous and strange doctrines contrary to God's Word?

Answer. I will, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you be diligent in prayers and in reading of the holy Scriptures, laying aside the study of the world and the flesh?

Answer. I will endeavour myself so to do, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you frame and fashion your own selves and your families according to the doctrine of Christ, and make yourselves wholesome examples to the flock?

Answer. I will apply myself thereto, the Lord being my helper.

Bishop. Will you reverently obey your Ordinary and other chief Ministers of the Church?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Veni Creator Spiritus and the Laying on of Hands

Then shall silence be kept for prayer. Then Veni Creator Spiritus shall be sung, the Bishop beginning and all answering by verses. That done, the Bishop shall pray:

Bishop. Almighty God and heavenly Father, who of thine infinite love hast given to us thy Son Jesus Christ to be our Redeemer; who after his ascension sent abroad into the world his Apostles, Prophets, Evangelists, Doctors, and Pastors: for these so great benefits, and for that thou hast vouchsafed to call these thy servants to the same office, we render unto thee most hearty thanks, and we humbly beseech thee to grant that we may daily increase in the knowledge and faith of thee and thy Son, by the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then the Bishop, with the Priests present, shall lay their hands severally upon the head of every one, the Bishop saying:

Bishop. Receive the Holy Ghost for the office and work of a Priest in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands. Whose sins thou dost forgive, they are forgiven; and whose sins thou dost retain, they are retained. And be thou a faithful dispenser of the Word of God and of his holy Sacraments; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Anointing

Then the Bishop shall anoint the palms of each new Priest with holy Chrism, making the sign of the Cross, saying:

Bishop. Vouchsafe, O Lord, to consecrate and sanctify these hands by this anointing; that whatsoever they shall bless may be blessed, and whatsoever they shall consecrate may be consecrated, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Delivery of the Bible

Then the Bishop shall deliver to every one of them the Bible, saying:

Bishop. Take thou authority to preach the Word of God and to minister the holy Sacraments in the congregation where thou shalt be lawfully appointed thereunto.

The Communion shall proceed. After the last Collect and before the Benediction:

Bishop. Most merciful Father, we beseech thee to send upon these thy servants thy heavenly blessing, that thy Word spoken by their mouths may never be spoken in vain; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop. The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God. And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you and remain with you always. Amen.

☥ ☥ ☥

PART II

The Consecration of Bishops

Always to be performed upon a Sunday or Holy-day. In accordance with Canon IV of the Synod of Armagh, no town shall have more than one Bishop. The Bishop hath the sole right of ordaining Priests within his Diocese. At least three Bishops are required for a valid consecration, following the canon of Nicaea.

☩ ☩ ☩

The Presentation

The elected Bishop, vested in Rochet, shall be presented by two Bishops unto the Primate or Archbishop of the Province.

Presenting Bishops. Most reverend Father in God, we present unto you this godly and well-learned man, to be ordained and consecrated Bishop.

The Primate shall demand the mandate of election. In accordance with Canon V of the Synod of Armagh, the temporal prince of the jurisdiction may have presented this candidate, but the Primate holdeth final determination. The Oath of Obedience is then administered:

Bishop-Elect. In the Name of God. Amen. I, N., chosen Bishop of the Church and See of N., do profess and promise all due reverence and obedience to the Primate, and to the Metropolitical Church of N., and to their successors. So help me God, through Jesus Christ.

The Litany and Collect

Primate. Brethren, it is written that our Saviour Christ continued the whole night in prayer before he chose his twelve Apostles. Let us therefore fall to prayer before we send forth this person to the work whereunto the Holy Ghost hath called him.

The Litany is said, with the proper suffrage for a Bishop. Then:

Primate. Almighty God, giver of all good things, who by thy holy Spirit hast appointed divers orders of Ministers in thy Church: mercifully behold this thy servant now called to the work of a Bishop, and replenish him so with the truth of thy doctrine that both by word and deed he may faithfully serve thee; through the merits of our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The Lessons

Epistle: 1 Timothy 3:1–7 or Acts 20:17–35
Gospel: St John 21:15–17 or St Matthew 28:18–20

The Examination

Primate. Are you persuaded that you be truly called to this ministration, according to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ and the order of this Church?

Answer. I am so persuaded.

Primate. Are you persuaded that the holy Scriptures contain sufficiently all doctrine required of necessity to eternal salvation? And are you determined to teach nothing as required of necessity but that which may be concluded by the same?

Answer. I am so persuaded and determined, by God's grace.

Primate. Will you faithfully exercise yourself in the Scriptures, and call upon God by prayer, so as to teach and exhort with wholesome doctrine and to withstand the gainsayers?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

Primate. Will you deny all ungodliness and live soberly, righteously, and godly, shewing yourself an example of good works?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Primate. Will you maintain quietness, love, and peace, and correct the disobedient according to the authority given you by God's Word?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

Primate. Will you be faithful in ordaining, sending, and laying hands upon others?

Answer. I will so be, by the help of God.

Primate. Will you shew yourself gentle, and be merciful for Christ's sake to the poor and needy?

Answer. I will so shew myself, by God's help.

Veni Creator and the Laying on of Hands

The Bishop-elect shall put on the rest of the Episcopal habit. Kneeling, Veni Creator Spiritus shall be sung over him. Then the Primate and Bishops present shall lay their hands upon his head, the Primate saying:

Primate. Receive the Holy Ghost for the office and work of a Bishop in the Church of God, now committed unto thee by the imposition of our hands, in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen. And remember that thou stir up the grace of God which is given thee; for God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and soberness.

The Anointing and Investiture

The Primate shall anoint the head of the new Bishop with Chrism, saying:

Primate. Be thy head anointed with holy oil, as kings, priests, and prophets were anointed; that among the flock committed to thy charge thou mayest serve as a faithful shepherd, guiding them in the way of eternal life. Amen.

Then the Primate shall deliver the Bible, the pastoral staff, and the mitre, saying at each:

Primate. [Bible] Give heed unto reading, exhortation, and doctrine. Be to the flock of Christ a shepherd, not a wolf; feed them, devour them not; that when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye may receive the never-fading crown of glory. Amen.

Primate. [Staff] Receive this staff of pastoral office, that thou mayest govern with gentleness and strength.

Primate. [Mitre] Receive the mitre; may the splendour of holiness shine forth from thee.

The Communion proceeds. The new Bishop gives the Blessing for the first time.

☥ ☥ ☥

PART III

The Installation of an Archbishop

An Archbishop is a Bishop who is elevated to the governance of a Province. He standeth between the order of Bishop and that of Primate, governing on behalf of the Primate and presiding over the Bishops of his Province. This is not a new ordination but an installation into a higher administrative dignity, the person having already received the fullness of Episcopal Consecration. The Installation requireth the authority of the Primate of the Province in which the new Archbishop shall serve, and the consent of the Bishops thereof.

☩ ☩ ☩

The Procession and Presentation

The Installation shall take place in the Cathedral Church of the Archiepiscopal See, upon a Sunday or Feast-day. The Primate of the Province shall preside. The Archbishop-elect, already a consecrated Bishop, shall be vested in cope and mitre and brought in procession by two Bishops.

Presenting Bishops. Most reverend Father in God, we present unto you our brother N., duly elected and confirmed, to be installed as Archbishop and Metropolitan of N.

The Primate shall cause the instrument of election to be read, together with the consent of the Bishops and, where Canon V applieth, the presentation of the temporal prince.

The Oath of Obedience

Archbishop-Elect. In the Name of God. Amen. I, N., chosen Archbishop of N., do profess and promise all due reverence and obedience to the Primate of N. and to the Primatial See, and to their successors. I do further promise to govern the Bishops, Priests, and Deacons of this Province in the fear of God, with charity and justice, defending the Catholic Faith as this Church hath received it. So help me God, through Jesus Christ.

The Litany

The Litany is said with this proper suffrage:

Primate. That it may please thee to bless and preserve this thy servant N., now to be installed as Archbishop and Metropolitan, that he may govern thy Church in wisdom, charity, and the fear of God.

People. We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

The Lessons

Epistle: Acts 20:28–35
Gospel: St Matthew 28:18–20

The Examination

Primate. Brother, you are called to bear the governance of a Province, presiding over the Bishops of your Metropolitan See. Will you faithfully defend the Catholic Faith, holding fast to the Creeds of the undivided Church?

Answer. I will, by the grace of God.

Primate. Will you govern the Bishops of your Province with fatherly care and brotherly counsel, never lording over them but serving them as first among equals?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Primate. Will you defend the rights of the poor, the stranger, and the oppressed, using the authority of your office for the glory of God and the salvation of his people?

Answer. I will, by the help of God.

Primate. Will you obey the Primate of your Province and the lawful decrees of the Insular Synod, maintaining communion with all the Bishops and Primates of this Church?

Answer. I will, the Lord being my helper.

The Installation

Then the Primate shall take the Archbishop-elect by the hand and lead him to the Metropolitan's chair. Setting him therein:

Primate. In the Name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, we do install thee, N., as Archbishop and Metropolitan of N. Sit thou in this Chair and govern the Church of God in this Province with wisdom, justice, and mercy; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Primate shall deliver the Archiepiscopal cross, saying:

Primate. Receive the Metropolitan cross, the sign of thy office; that bearing the Cross of Christ before thee, thou mayest lead his people in truth and peace.

If the custom of the Province provideth for the pallium, the Primate shall bestow it, saying:

Primate. Receive the pallium, the token of thy communion with the Primatial See and of thy authority as Metropolitan.

The Clergy and people shall come forward and do reverence to the new Archbishop, who shall bless each individually after the Insular custom. The Communion proceeds. The new Archbishop shall celebrate for the first time from the Metropolitan's chair.

☥ ☥ ☥

PART IV

The Enthronement of a Primate

By Canon III of the Synod of Armagh, the Insular Church is governed by a College of Five Primates: the See of Armagh (first among equals), St Davids, Canterbury, York, and St Andrews. No Primate later ordained may be regarded as senior to these five. A Primate must already hold Episcopal Consecration. His Enthronement is an act of installation, not a new ordination.

☩ ☩ ☩

The Procession and Presentation

The Enthronement shall take place in the Primatial Cathedral. The senior Primate of the College (or, for the Comharba Pátraic, the next in precedence) shall preside.

Presenting Bishops. Most reverend Father in God, we present unto you our brother N., duly elected and confirmed by the Synod, to be enthroned as Primate of N.

The instrument of election and the consent of the Bishops of the Province shall be read.

The Litany and Collect

Presiding Primate. That it may please thee to bless, preserve, and govern this thy servant, now to be enthroned as Primate and chief Pastor of his Province, pouring upon him such measure of thy grace that he may rule in wisdom, charity, and the fear of God.

People. We beseech thee to hear us, good Lord.

Presiding Primate. Almighty God, who by thy Son Jesus Christ didst charge thy Apostles to feed thy flock: give grace to all Bishops and especially to this thy servant called to the governance of a Province; that he may diligently preach thy Word and duly administer its discipline; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Examination

Presiding Primate. Will you faithfully defend the Catholic Faith as this Church hath received it, holding fast to the Creeds of the undivided Church and to the Scriptures?

Answer. I will, by the grace of God.

Presiding Primate. Will you govern the Bishops and Archbishops of your Province with fatherly care, never lording over them but serving as first among equals, seeking always the unity of Christ's Church?

Answer. I will so do, the Lord being my helper.

Presiding Primate. Will you maintain communion with the other Primates of the College and with all Christians who hold the Catholic and Apostolic Faith, in accordance with Canon VI of the Synod of Armagh?

Answer. I will, the Lord being my helper.

Presiding Primate. Do you acknowledge that Synods convened by the Primates are the highest authority of the Insular Church (Canon II), and will you submit to their lawful decrees?

Answer. I do acknowledge it, and I will submit, God being my helper.

The Enthronement

The presiding Primate shall take the Primate-elect by the hand and lead him to the Primatial chair:

Presiding Primate. In the Name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and by the authority of the College of Primates, we enthrone thee, N., as Primate of N. Sit thou in this Chair of thy predecessors and govern the Church of God in this Province; in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The Primatial cross is delivered:

Presiding Primate. Receive the primatial cross, emblem of thy authority; bearing the Cross of Christ before thee, lead his people in truth and peace.

If the pallium be customary, it is bestowed. The Clergy and people do reverence and receive individual blessings. The Communion proceeds. The new Primate celebrateth for the first time from the Primatial chair.

☥ ☥ ☥

PART V

The Enthronement of the Bishop of Rome

Upon the Reunion of the Whole Church

This Form presupposeth that the Churches of East and West have been reconciled in one visible communion. The Bishop of Rome is here understood as Patriarch of the West and Servant of the Servants of God, holding a primacy of honour among the Patriarchs, not a jurisdiction of dominion. As Saint Gregory the Great refused the title 'Universal Bishop,' so this Form honoureth that ancient humility.

The Insular Church receiveth the ancient canons which grant to the See of Rome a primacy of honour on account of the Apostles Peter and Paul. This primacy is understood after the manner of the first millennium: the Bishop of Rome is first among the Patriarchs, whose voice carrieth a special weight of charity, but who governeth in communion with his brother Bishops and not over them.

In accordance with Canon VI of the Synod of Armagh, which recogniseth communion with the Patriarchate of Constantinople on account of longstanding ties and maintained Apostolic Succession, this Form likewise envisioneth a restored communion with the ancient Patriarchates of Rome, Alexandria, Antioch, and Jerusalem.

The Election

The Bishop of Rome shall be elected by the Bishops, Clergy, and faithful of the Diocese of Rome, with the consent of the Patriarchs and Primates of the universal Church. The election shall be communicated by letters to Constantinople, Alexandria, Antioch, Jerusalem, and the five Primates of the Insular Church. If after forty days no lawful objection be received, the Enthronement shall proceed.

The Vigil

On the evening before, the Bishop-elect shall keep vigil at the tomb of the Apostle Paul, with these Lessons:

Isaiah 61:1–4 — 1 Peter 5:1–4 — St Matthew 16:13–19

The Enthronement

On the appointed day, the Bishop-elect, vested in a simple white alb and stole, without mitre, shall be brought in procession barefoot to the Lateran Basilica. Two Patriarchs shall present him:

Presenting Patriarchs. Reverend Fathers and brethren, we present unto you N., duly elected by the Clergy and people of Rome and confirmed by the Patriarchs, to be enthroned as Bishop of Rome, Patriarch of the West, and Servant of the Servants of God.

Senior Patriarch. Is it the will of this assembly that N. be enthroned as Bishop of this See?

All. It is. God wills it. Deo gratias.

The Prostration and Litany

The Bishop-elect shall prostrate himself before the altar. The Litany of the Saints shall be sung, invoking the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Apostles, the Insular Saints, and all the Saints. At the conclusion he shall rise.

The Examination

Senior Patriarch. Do you confess the Faith of the holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church as expressed in the Nicene Creed, without addition or diminution?

Answer. I do confess it, by the grace of God.

Senior Patriarch. Do you acknowledge that the office of Bishop of Rome is a ministry of service and not of domination, and do you pledge to exercise the primacy in communion with your brother Bishops and Patriarchs, never claiming a jurisdiction that destroyeth the lawful liberty of the particular Churches?

Answer. I do so acknowledge and pledge, God being my helper.

Senior Patriarch. Will you defend the ancient rights of the Patriarchates and Provinces, respecting the traditions of both East and West, seeking always the unity of the Church in the bond of peace?

Answer. I will so do, by the help of God.

Senior Patriarch. Will you remember that you are Servus Servorum Dei, and that the Lord came not to be ministered unto but to minister?

Answer. I will remember it, and I will serve.

The Washing of Feet

The Bishop-elect shall kneel before twelve poor persons and wash their feet, saying:

Bishop-Elect. If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

The Enthronement and Investiture

The senior Patriarch shall lead the Bishop-elect to the Cathedra and set him therein:

Senior Patriarch. In the Name of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, and by the consent of the universal Church: we enthrone thee, N., as Bishop of Rome, Patriarch of the West, and Servant of the Servants of God. Be thou not a lord over God's heritage, but an example to the flock; that when the chief Shepherd shall appear, thou mayest receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away. Amen.

The pallium is bestowed:

Senior Patriarch. Receive the pallium, the sign of thy communion with all the Churches and of thy pastoral solicitude for the whole people of God.

The Fisherman's Ring is given:

Senior Patriarch. Receive the Ring of the Fisherman, in remembrance of blessed Peter. Remember that thou art dust, and that the power given thee is not thine own, but Christ's.

The Patriarchs and Primates shall embrace the new Bishop of Rome with the Kiss of Peace. Then the first Blessing:

Bishop of Rome. The blessing of Almighty God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, descend upon you and upon all the Churches, and remain with you always.

People. Amen. Deo gratias.

The Communion proceeds, with the Bishop of Rome as celebrant. The Patriarchs and Primates concelebrate, signifying the unity of the whole Church.

☥ ☥ ☥

APPENDIX

Notes on Sources and Theology

The Threefold Ministry. The Insular Church holdeth that the threefold ministry of Bishops, Priests, and Deacons is of Apostolic origin. The rank of Archbishop is an administrative dignity within the Episcopal order, not a distinct sacramental grade. The essential matter of ordination is the laying on of hands by Bishops in the Apostolic Succession, with the invocation of the Holy Ghost (Acts 6:6; 1 Tim 4:14; 2 Tim 1:6). At least three Bishops are required for Episcopal consecration, per the Council of Nicaea. The anointing with Chrism is an ancient Western custom received as a venerable sign.

The Canons of Armagh. This Ordinal incorporateth the governance structure of the First Insular Synod: the College of Five Primates (Canon III), the Bishop's sole right of ordination (Canon IV), temporal princes' role in presenting candidates (Canon V), communion with Constantinople (Canon VI), Synodal authority (Canons I–II), and valid ordination requirements (Canon XII).

The Primacy of Rome. The Insular Church acknowledgeth the ancient primacy of the Bishop of Rome as attested by Nicaea, Constantinople, and Chalcedon—a primacy of honour, not of universal jurisdiction. Saint Gregory the Great rejected the title 'Universal Bishop' as contrary to the Gospel.

The Pre-Tridentine Position. The Insular Church standeth before the Council of Trent (1545–1563), requiring Apostolic Succession, the laying on of hands, and the invocation of the Holy Ghost, but not the specific Tridentine formulations. The Concordat of Candida Casa (c. 849) is the foundational sacramental statement.

Liturgical Sources. The examination questions and prayers are drawn from the 1662 BCP Ordinal. The anointing rites draw upon the Pontificale Romanum and the Gallican customs of Saint Germanus of Paris. The hymn Veni Creator Spiritus, attributed to Rabanus Maurus (d. 856), hath been used at ordinations since the tenth century.

☥ ☥ ☥

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen.

☥ ☥ ☥

Compiled for the Insular Church ☥ Mvindicraft ☥ Anno Dantavius

Finis Ordinalis